I hear a crunch overhead and see Henry's massive fist tighten over the Willi-copter....

Chapter 2 by Lore

Henry clenches his fist over the propeller and says 'you arent going anywhere stamperino'. Will then initiates his rocket chemistry launchers and squirts some carbonic acid into Henry's mouth. Henry then vomits out miss Douglas and ms spaz together, holding onto each other. they both come flying at will's helicopter window with ms spaz throwing maos last dancer books at his window and ms Douglas with her wide- brimmed hat and red lipstick throwing Romeo and Juliet lines to translate. They both land on the windscreen and Will can hear ms Douglas say something to him. He listens closely and can barely hear her screaming over the sound of the propellers but can hear her say 'translate these lines or else you are going to end up in my stash of bones!' He then hears ms spaz say 'write this mao's last dancer essay or I'm going to suffocate you in my moustache hair!' Willi gets very shocked and scared but he manages to shoot ms dougy and spaz back into henry's mouth.

Henry then spits them back out but they miss willi's helicopter and go flying into the pacific love." He takes off his glasses, hands them over to Jacob, and wraps himself in his jetpack straps. "Farewell my friends, I must go and conquer my love! Ms Douglas I'm coming!" he flies off toward the Pacific ocean leaving Jacob, Henry DeBono and myself behind. "Fr-friends?" weeps Jacob, a drizzle of emotional tears running down his cheeks. He puts on Mr Eibert's glasses and turns to Henry and I, "How'd I look?" he asked with a cheesy smile. Henry immediately raises his hand up to my eyes and I raise mine to his, blocking the horrific view. We run towards the opposite direction for several meters but I am to tired to carry on. "Leave me, save yourself!" I tell Henry. He grunts in response and picks me up like a delicate princess.

At that moment a winged baby Lior flies in from the horizon and pronounces these heavenly words: "When the danger is real, even enemies must unite to fight it." A little harp music plays and it is all over. The sky turns grey and it starts raining. My hair is ruined and my foundation starts running down my face. Even my Xtra Waterproof Mascara (a William Stamperino invention) makes my face look like a depressed panda. Henry slips in a puddle and drops me in the mud. Could this day get any worse?!

Chapter 4 by Dingo

All of a sudden everyone is teleported to the holy temple itself. JOHN MONASH SCIENCE SCHOOL!!!!

We explore the surroundings and are fascinated by the advanced technology in JMSS. Everything is different. Everything is better, more advanced. The buildings are all equipped with special radars used to detect the bright student's every moves. The water in the underground pool is chemically modified to instantly reduce pain when one of the students does a belly flop. This particular update was suggested by William Stamperino himself, a survivor of the worst belly flops. Even the lavatories have something unique about them. We could never expect such mesmerizing equipment at Glen Eira College!

As we stroll around the vast grounds of the school we come across a door left ajar. "This doesn't seem right..." says William, "Our special door-shutters would never have missed the left wing #307C door open!" with a definite pace he walks towards the door and inspects the high-tech knob. "Hmmm... foreign fingerprints." he says turning towards us. He turns around and starts
